The tax-deferred feature of the annuity is not necessary for a tax-qualified plan. Before clients purchase this product, they should obtain competent tax advice as to the tax treatment of the annuity and the suitability of the purchase. Under current law, annuities grow tax-deferred. Annuities may be subject to taxation during the income or withdrawal phase. There is no additional tax benefit to investing in a variable annuity within a tax-qualified account (such as an IRA).

Sammons Institutional Group<sup>SM</sup>, Inc., Sammons Financial Network® LLC and Midland National® Life Insurance Company do not give tax, legal, or investment advice. Please have your client consult with and rely on their own tax, legal, or investment professional(s). Taxes are payable upon withdrawal of funds, and a 10% IRS penalty may apply to withdrawals prior to age 59½.

Clients retiring or changing jobs have options. In some cases, it may be beneficial for clients to leave the money in their current retirement plan. They can also consider rolling assets into the new employer plan, installments or annuity payments (if available), cashing out the account value, or rolling assets into an IRA.
