Cycle Transition Rules

Your contract must be active to enter a Cycle, with active allocation instructions on file to direct your investment into the Cycle. Cycles start on the third Thursday of each month. Once a Cycle has launched, additional investments into that specific Cycle are not allowed. Once instructions are received and in good order, money will transfer from the Default Account to the Cycle Index Account on the Cycle Start Date. If a Cycle does not launch, money will remain in the Default Account until we receive new allocations. As funds transfer through the Default Account, the value is based on the market value of the fund. Therefore, the value could be more or less than the original investment.

Cycle Bailout

Should the final rate on any Cycle be unsatisfactory to you, you may bail out of the Cycle(s). To exercise your right to bail out from a Cycle, you must notify us within 10 business days* from the date the confirmation was sent. The bailout proceeds will be equal to the entire amount you allocated to the Cycle on the Cycle Start Date. If you choose to exercise this right, you must provide reallocation instructions.

* May vary by state but will be no less than 10 business days.

An investment in the LiveWell Dynamic Annuity® is subject to the risk of poor investment performance and can vary depending on the performance of the investment options you choose. Each investment option has its own unique risks. You should review the investment options before making an investment decision. The prospectus and/or summary prospectus contain this and other information. You can visit srlivewell.com/prospectus, or call 866-747-3421 to obtain a current prospectus for the LiveWell Dynamic Annuity and its underlying investment options.

The risk of loss occurs each time you move into a new Cycle Indexed Account after the end of an indexed term. The protection level option selected in the indexed account helps protect you from some downside risk. If the negative return is in excess of the protection level selected, there is a risk of loss of principal. Protection levels that vary based on the index and term selected are subject to change and may not be available with every option. Please see the prospectus for details.
